Fuentes to Give Book Talk at DPL

[DEFIANCE] – Robert “Carlos” Fuentes, author of The Vacation: A Teenage Migrant Farmworker’s Experience Picking Cherries in Michigan, will visit Defiance Public Library, 320 Fort St., on Sept. 6 at 11 a.m. to discuss and sign his book.

The book talk, which is free and open to all adults, will last approximately 30 minutes and be followed by a book signing and question-and-answer session. It will take place in the library’s Nellie Gary Reading Room.

The book is a coming-of-age story that intertwines the bonds of family and friends, emphasizes the importance of heritage, captures the sweetness of first love, and showcases the quiet dignity of hard work.

Books will be available for purchase at the event. No registration is needed. For more information, contact the library at 419-782-1456.
