Care for the Caregiver: Free Program at Defiance Public Library

[Defiance, Ohio] — Defiance Public Library invites community members to attend 'Care for the Caregiver,' a free educational program presented by Marlene Baker of Heartland Hospice.

The program will take place Nov. 14 at 10:30 a.m. in the Nellie Gary Reading Room at the library, 320 Fort St., Defiance.

This informative session will focus on topics important to caregivers and their loved ones, including advance care planning, quality of life considerations, and common myths and truths about hospice care. Baker, who provides community education on Medicare services, will share valuable insights to help attendees make informed decisions and feel more confident in their caregiving roles.

This program is free and open to all adults, and no registration is required.

For more information about the program, contact the library at 419-782-1456.
