Ohio Author Michelle Houts Coming to DPL for Family Event

[Defiance, Ohio] — Defiance Public Library is delighted to welcome Ohio-based children's author Michelle Houts for a special Fall Children's Author Visit on Nov. 20 at 6 p.m.

This engaging, family-friendly event is geared toward children from pre-K through grade 6 and their families. Houts will share the stories behind her beloved books and discuss how she became a writer, inspiring young readers and budding authors alike.

A selection of her books will be available for purchase and signing before and after the event, including Hopefully the Scarecrow, Sea Glass Summer, Silent Swoop, and Winterfrost.

This program is free to attend, and no registration is required.

The event is sponsored by the Friends of Defiance Public, Sherwood Branch, and Johnson Memorial libraries, whose support helps make special literacy and community events like this possible.
