OhioGuidestone to Present Early Childhood Mental Health Program at Defiance Public Library

DEFIANCE, Ohio – Defiance Public Library will host an informational program on early childhood mental health, presented by OhioGuidestone, on Thursday, October 1, from 5:30-6:30 p.m. at the library, 320 Fort St.

OhioGuidestone's early childhood mental health program offers a specialized treatment approach designed to assist families in strengthening relationships while addressing the specific mental health needs of young children.

The comprehensive, family-centered program focuses on the child while emphasizing the importance of the parent-child relationship. Therapists in the program have specialized knowledge, training, and experience working with parents and young children.

The program is open to all adults, and no registration is required. For more information, contact Defiance Public Library at 419-782-1456.
