Library Program to Explore the History of Buck Cemetery

DEFIANCE, Ohio – The Defiance Public Library will host a program exploring the history of Buck Cemetery in Springfield Township, Williams County, on Tuesday, October 13, at 5:30 p.m. at the library, 320 Fort St.

Richard Cooley, Vice-President of the Williams County Genealogical Society, will present the program, which will examine the early formation of Buck Cemetery and some of the notable events that have taken place there over the years.

Cooley also will discuss the cemetery's history of vandalism, as well as several veterans who are buried there. The presentation will include additional stories and historical information about the cemetery and those connected to it.

The program is open to all adults, and no registration is needed.

For more information, contact Defiance Public Library at 419-782-1456.
