Defiance Public Library to Host Foster Care and Adoption Information Session

[DEFIANCE] Defiance Public Library, 320 Fort St., will host an informational program about foster care and adoption on Monday, November 2, at 6 p.m.

Charity Meuleman of Defiance/Paulding Consolidated Job & Family Services will explain the licensing process and how interested individuals can get started.

Current foster parents will also share their experiences, offering attendees an opportunity to hear firsthand about fostering and ask questions in an informal, welcoming setting.

The program is free and open to all adults. No registration is required.

For more information, contact the library at 419-782-1456.
